LAW FIRM EXPANSION. The attorneys of Allen Galluzzo Hevrin Leake, LLC have announced a further expansion of the law firm.

Leading the team which is joining the firm are well known professionals Gregory Snyder and Jerrod Barenbaum, who have decades of experience representing physicians, physician groups, and hospital systems in various capacities, including litigation and transactional matters. This expansion comes quickly on the heels of the firm's incorporation of the health care practices of William Renard and Ryan Armour. AGHL Law increased its already deep bench in the health care practice areas to meet the needs of medical clients in the region. New partner Jerrod Barenbaum indicates that "we are very excited to join AGHL and their attorneys, and look forward to continuing to provide the best in legal services to our clientele." Also joining the firm as part of our medical litigation team are partners Dan Wiesch and Jenna Ewing, and associates Matthew Turley and Nathan Friedman, each of whom has experience representing health care providers.

The firm concentrates in the area of business transactions and commercial litigation, appellate litigation in both state and federal courts, banking and finance, estate planning, labor and employment, real estate, economic development and government representation, and health care corporate transactions and all types of medical care litigation. The Firm offers the people you know and the advice that you trust. Allen Galluzzo Hevrin Leake, LLC is located at 6735 Vistagreen Way, Suite 110, Rockford, IL 61107 and its phone number is 815.265.6464. See our web site at www.aghllaw.com.
